WHAT TO EXPECT

Wayfinder trips are built around a simple idea: someone else handles the logistics, so you can actually be somewhere instead of managing it. You'll travel with a small group, usually around six people, so the pace stays personal rather than turning into a tour bus.

YOUR WAYFINDER LEADER

Every trip travels with one Wayfinder leader, someone who knows the destinations well and stays with the group from the airport pickup through to the final night. They handle the ferries, the bookings, and the local knowledge, point you toward the right cove or the right taverna, and step back when you'd rather explore on your own

HOW THE DAYS WORK

Each stop has a handful of included highlights woven through it, the ones worth building a day around. Everything else is left open. Some days the group moves together, some days people scatter and find their own version of the island. Both are the point.

WHERE THE TRIP BEGINS

"Athens was my favorate spot"
- Grace 2023

Athens takes its time revealing itself. Ancient ruins sit beside apartment blocks, motorbikes wind past marble that has stood for three thousand years, and the city carries on around it, unhurried. afternoon at a time.

Spend eight days getting to know it slowly, wander the narrow streets of Plaka, watch the sunset from the Acropolis and Philopappos Hill, cycle along the Athens Riviera to Kavouri Beach, and swim in the warm, mineral-rich waters of Vouliagmeni Lake.

ATHENS ITINERARY

DAY 1 ARRIVE & SETTLE IN
Arrive in Athens, check in and take a gentle evening wander through Plaka. Find a local taverna for your first Greek dinner.

DAY 2 PLAKA & ANAFIOTIKA
Spend the morning getting lost among the narrow streets of Plaka and the tiny lanes of Anafiotika. Stop for coffee, browse local shops and let the afternoon unfold slowly.

DAY 3 ACROPOLIS & PHILOPAPPOS HILL
Explore the Acropolis and Ancient Agora in the morning with a local guide. In the evening, walk up Philopappos Hill for sunset over the city.

DAY 4 ATHENS RIVIERA
Hire bikes and follow the coastline south at your own pace. Spend the afternoon swimming and relaxing at Kavouri Beach before heading back into Athens.

DAY 5 VOULIAGMENI
Escape the city for a slower day by the water. Swim in the warm, mineral-rich waters of Vouliagmeni Lake, then spend the afternoon exploring the surrounding coast.

DAY 6 -7 YOUR ATHENS
Keep the day open. Visit a museum, find a hidden café, shop local markets or return to somewhere you loved. Follow whatever catches your attention.

DAY 8 SLOW MORNING & FAREWELL
Enjoy a final Greek breakfast and one last wander through the city. Pick up something local to take with you before continuing to Milos.

MILOS ITINERARY

DAY 2 SARAKINIKO

DAY 7 FREE DAY
Leave the day open for a boat trip, another swim or returning to a favourite cove.

DAY 8 SLOW DAY & FAREWELL
Take one final slow morning on the island before continuing by ferry to Santorini.

Milos feels closer to the moon than to the rest of Greece, its white volcanic cliffs shaped by centuries of sea. Spend eight days slowing down along its coastline, swim through the sea caves of Papafragas, discover the hidden turquoise waters of Tsigrado, spend a day cliff jumping, and watch the light change across the lunar landscape of Sarakiniko. Wander through Plaka and Klima as the sun goes down, or simply find another cove and stay there for the afternoon.

SANTORINI ITINERARY

Santorini carries two versions of itself at once. There are the white houses and blue domes stacked above the caldera, and then there is the quieter island shaped by its volcanic past, dark ash soil, rugged coastlines and vineyards growing straight from the earth. Spend five days moving between both sides of the island: sail across the caldera, swim in volcanic hot springs, taste wine at a family vineyard, wander the quieter villages of Pyrgos and Megalochori, and finish with the famous sunset in Oia.

DAY 1 ARRIVE & WINE
Arrive in Santorini, settle in and spend the afternoon tasting local wine at a family-run vineyard.

DAY 2 CALDERA & VOLCANO
Take a boat across the caldera, walk across the volcanic landscape and finish with a swim in the hot springs.

DAY 3 THE SCORCHED COAST
Spend a slow day exploring the island's black and red sand beaches, with time to swim and relax.

DAY 4 PYRGOS & MEGALOCHORI
Wander through the quieter hilltop villages of Pyrgos and Megalochori before finding somewhere peaceful for sunset.

DAY 5 OIA & FAREWELL

Explore Oia before settling in for the famous sunset, followed by one final dinner together before heading home.
